BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Acknowledges the receipt of G.O. No. H-8521-3/Gd-350-05-2 dt 11-6-06, and states that, in anticipation of special sanction of Govt. he has authorised Messrs Coutts & Co to pay Mr Bhabha at £80/- a month during the period of his privilege leave, and that in regard to the period of his furlough, the two-thirds of pay sanctioned which cannot be treated as leave allowance to be paid at 1sh-6d the rupee. Regarding actual travelling expenses, he suggests that it is best to allow Mr Bhabha to draw up to a max^m limit. Also points out that the difference bet two thirds & one-half pay is Rs 225/- and not Rs 200/- as is calculated in the G.O. referred to.

The Comptroller wants orders on the following points:

1) Whether the 2/3rds of pay sanctioned to the 18 Lakha during the period of his furlough and deputation should be paid at 1sh 4d a rupee or at the privileged rate of 1sh 6d a rupee

2) Whether it is clearly understood that Govt will not have to pay more than £1 a day for his travelling expenses in Europe and

3) Payment of privilege leave allowances out of India

As regards point (1) the Comptroller explains that furlough allowances drawn in England are by rule paid at 1sh 6d the rupee but a special rule is laid down regarding remittance of pay and that in the absence of such rule in case the 2/3rds pay cannot be treated as leave allowance at all.

ordinarily privilege leave allowances are not payable out of India. If Mr. Bhabha wants to spend his leave in Europe & has asked for the payment of his leave allowances there the Special Sanction required under rule 1 to art 461 A of M.S.R may be conveyed.

The next point raised by the Comptr. is whether Mr. Bhabha should be treated as on duty or on leave during the period in which he will be employed in studying the systems of education in Switzerland & Germany and at what rate of exchange his allowances for the period Sh?. be paid. The deputation being in accordance with the practice obtaining in British India, the period Sh?. be treated as on duty as laid down in the ~~Govt of India Secretary~~ of despatch of the Secretary of State no 146 (Educational) 928. 11-02. What Mr. Bhabha receives during the period Sh?. therefore be treated as pay & not furlough allowance. As for the rate of exchange, it is only furlough allowances that can under the rules be remitted at the privileged rate of Exchange viz 1sh 6d the Rupee. Mr Bhabha has asked for the remittance of his allowances at this rate and his request may perhaps be granted as a Special Case.

The 3rd point raised by the Comptr. is whether Govt will not have to pay more than ~~Rs~~ £1 a day on account of actual travelling expenses. The G.O. has sanctioned actual travelling expenses not exceeding £1 a day for such portion of the 4 months as may be devoted to the Special Studies in England but what Mr Bhabha asked for in his letter was that he sh?-get "the actual travelling expenses, that is all railway fare, Steamer and other fares spent on duty and a halting allowance of the actual hotel expenses". It is not clear if the £1 sanctioned is intended to cover all these expenses. Mr Bhabha has not referred to this rate as the maximum he would claim for these expenses. Hotel charges

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER, MYSORE GOVERNMENT,

Dated Bangalore, the 14 June 1906

FROM

RAI N. G. BABU BAHADUR, M.A.,
COMPTROLLER, MYSORE GOVERNMENT.

To

The SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE,
General and Revenue DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Government order No.Fl:8521-3/Ed:350-05-2 dated the 11th June regarding the arrangements for placing Mr.Bhabha on special duty during his furlough in England.

2. In paragraph 5 of the order, I am required to arrange for the payment to Mr.Bhabha while in England of his leave allowances at the usual rates of exchange and for making advances towards actual travelling expenses in Europe and America.

3. Privilege leave allowances cannot be paid in England without special orders of Government but to prevent any inconvenience to Mr.Bhabha- I have anticipated the special Government sanction and have authorised Messrs. Coutts & Co., to pay him at £.80. a month for the period of privilege leave.

4. As regards the period of furlough, Mr.Bhabha saw me before he left for England and told me that he was expecting to get his two-thirds pay at 1s-6d the rupee. I reserved my opinion till I received Government orders. I beg now to explain that furlough allowances drawn in England are by rule paid at 1s-6d the rupee but no special rule is laid down regarding remittance of pay. In Mr.Bhabha's case the two-thirds pay cannot be treated as leave allowance at all. The Government of India order on the basis of which the arrangement is sanctioned treats the period spent on duty as special duty during furlough counting as service for pension and the emoluments of the officer are practically re-regulated by Article 85(a) of the British India Civil Service Regulations. An officer cannot be on leave and on duty at the same time and he cannot be given the pay prescribed for a particular duty and the pay treated as leave allowance for applying the rate of exchange for remittance to England.

5. I therefore request that I may be favoured with further orders of Government on the subject. In the calculation given in paragraph 2 of the Government orde of the financial effect of the arrangement, the difference between two-thirds and one-half of pay is taken at Rs.200. This can be correct only on the assumption that the exchange is taken at 1s-4d the rupee. But in the case of Half pay exchange must be taken at 1s-6d, and if the same rate is taken for the 2/3ds pay, the difference should be Rs.225.

As regards the actual travelling expenses, I beg to enquire whether it is clearly understood that Government will not have to pay more than £1 a day in any case. I make this enquiry, because this office has no means of checking travelling expenses in England, America and the continent of Europe and the best course is to allow the officer to draw up to a maximum limit. Otherwise Government runs a serious risk in accepting an unlimited liability.

To enable me to issue further necessary instructions, I beg I may be favoured with early orders.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Comptroller.

G.O.No.Fl.8521-3/Ed.350-05-2 dated the 11th June 1906, granting to Mr.H.J. Bhabha, Inspector General of Education, privilege leave for 3 months combined with furlough for 4 months under article 165 A of the Mysore Service Regulations and placing him on special duty for the study of the primary and technical Education systems in Europe and America during the period of furlough.

2. Letter No.6914/A.C.1061 dated the 14th June 1906 from the Comptroller to the Govt.of H.H.the Maharaja, soliciting instructions on certain points regarding the arrangements sanctioned in the above.

Order thereon.- No. Fl 1321-2 Gl Fin 350-05

Dated, the 8-8-06

The payment of privilege leave allowances to Mr.Bhabha in England is sanctioned under article 461 A of the Mysore Service Regulations.

2. The period spent by Mr.Bhabha on furlough is, on the analogy of the rulings in the despatches of the Government of India and the Secretary of State, to be treated as on special duty, and the 2/3 rds pay due to him for this period will be remitted at the current rate of exchange as there is no provision for the remittance of pay at the privileged rate of 1 s. 6 d. the rupee in such a case.

3. The maximum limit up to which

Mr.

Mr.Bhabha can claim travelling allowances has been fixed in para 2 of the Govt.Order read above at 1 £. a day and the Comptroller may admit the charges accordingly.
